

The ATPI Promise

Our Purpose

As a group of specialist global travel and events businesses we strive to deliver what really matters to our customers

Our Ambition

We want to be the number one travel and events provider of choice for international businesses looking for sector expertise, high-touch service and innovative technology

Our Goals

Our specialist businesses each have their own specific goals:

CORPORATE TRAVEL

To be the leading specialist in travel management for mid-market multinationals where travel is critical to the business

GRIFFIN|STONE

To build on our specialist leadership in travel management for the global shipping, energy and resources industries

CORPORATE EVENTS

To be the obvious specialist partner for companies needing corporate event management tailored for their target groups

SPORTS EVENTS

To be the leading specialist provider of hospitality programmes, travel and events logistics for the international sports domain

Our Values

These underpin everything we do. They define us and how we go about our business:

Integrity:

Holding ourselves to the highest standards

Empowerment:

Promoting accountability. Encouraging initiative. Recognising achievement

Innovation:

Always asking why. Always challenging. Always searching for a better way

Service:

Putting the customer first. Being proactive. Tailoring solutions. Striving for excellence

Who we are

Our clients describe us as responsive, friendly, helpful, reliable, solution-oriented, trustworthy, pragmatic, service-minded... passionate about what we do.

These are the qualities that distinguish us. They're part of our DNA. And they describe how we aspire to be, every day.
